Welcome

in Namur

green meeting place in the heart of Europe

Smart meeting and incentive facilities: meetings in the countryside, a stone's throw from Brussels

A successful blend of tradition and modernity, and a regional capital in the heart of Europe, the Province of Namur is brimming over with exceptional sites which will make a total success of your meetings and events. A growing number of companies, organisations and associations have chosen to hold their meetings, seminars and incentives there. For Namur offers a host of typical and/or prestigious places among which you will find the site which best meets your requirements.

- Hotels specialising in hosting seminars
- exhibition halls
- castles
- old industrial mills or farms
- Meuse-style villas
- university auditoriums
- high-tech technological centres
- ...

All of these are places which enable you to organise medium-size meetings (100 – 300 people) in a prestigious, typical or unusual setting.

The conviviality of life: always at the heart of the event

A region of traditions, myths and legends, the province vibrates throughout the year to the rhythm of a rich and ubiquitous folklore and of internationally renowned festivals. The conviviality of living is an art there, and you are cordially invited to be a part of it.

A good dose of adrenalin or discovery : a unique incentive offer

The beauty and the craggy landscape of the province, together with its history-filled past, make it an ideal region for incentive and team-building activities of all sorts.

Imagine, after a day in a meeting, in a 17th-century castle or on a river-boat...

- offering your co-workers a classical music concert in pre-historic caves
- going on a treasure-hunt in the underground passages of Europe's biggest citadel or in the ruins of a mediaeval castle
- leaping from the top of a hill for a paragliding flight or boarding an amphibious bus to cross the biggest lake in Belgium, which is the scene of all water-sports
- and a host of other possibilities: since a warm welcome is a cardinal virtue in the province of Namur, the partner-operators of Welcome in Namur bend over backwards to meet your requirements in a personal and made-to-measure way.

The pleasures of the table : renowned gastronomy

Namur invites you to relax around a well-furnished table offering you the pleasures of a refined gastronomy, never far from one of these delicious special beers which make the province's name.

Namur from Charleroi Airport: your gateway to Europe

In the heart of Europe, the province of Namur is served by a complete communications network putting it a stone's throw from Brussels by road or rail, and less than two hours from most of the 28 main cities of Europe from the nearby Brussels South Charleroi Airport.

- 25' from Brussels South Charleroi Airport
- 40' from Brussels
- 90' from Luxembourg
- 35' from Liège
- motorway and railway junction of north-western Europe linking the four points of the compass: Paris-Cologne, Brussels-Strasbourg
